

Tutors who've just sat these exams.

I match students with tutors who are still at university or school themselves, and who did brilliantly in the subject they teach. They sat the same papers a year or two ago, so they haven't had time to forget what the examiner wanted.

• One-to-one only

• Current specification

• Usually matched in 1-2 days

• No joining fee

They got the grades

I pick on results first, then on whether they can explain something to a person who's properly stuck. The second turns out to be rarer.

They know this year's spec

The same specification your child is on, not one that's since been rewritten. Same board, same papers, same mark schemes.

I choose the tutor myself

You tell me what's needed, and I'll tell you who I think fits and why.

No algorithms. No tutor marketplace.

LEVELS

11+ / KS3 / IB / A Level

Any subject. Ask me and I'll see what I can do.

"It felt like having someone who had literally just been through the same exam."

A-level student, London

Not sure what tutor you need?

That's completely normal. Tell me what's going on and I'll work out who fits. It costs nothing to ask, and nothing to be matched.
